

The Midyear Weekend (7/1/17)

We're right in the middle of the year. And for those of us with understanding bosses, this will be a long, four-day weekend, spanning Canada Day (July 1) and Independence Day (July 4). John and Jessica salute our neighboring nations with some Canadian songs and artists and some songs about American states. And to add to the summer-holiday atmosphere, this week's show originates from the Deluxe Cabin at the lake. Come join us for good music, conversation, and potato salad!
