

A Cole Festival (11/11/17)

By night, they're the toast of the town, entertaining New York's upper crust at the Café Carlyle. But by day, John & Jessica entertain their radio listeners from their own deluxe living room. This week, John pays tribute to his biggest influence in his jazz career, Nat King Cole. He also tips his hat to the most famous of the Carlyle's headliners, Bobby Short, and shines the spotlight for a segment on the inimitable Dave Frishberg.

Frank Weber - Straighten Up and Fly Right (As the Time Flies)
Nat King Cole Trio - It's Only a Paper Moon (The Trio Recordings Vol. 1)
